Vice-President Of Executive Board Resigns Position

J. C. Student Body Will Select Officer To Replace George Butler

George Butler, student body vice-president, handed in his resignation at the meeting of the executive board yesterday morning.

The board has decided to call a special election within the next week for a new vice-president who will hold office for the rest of the semester.

Butler found his outside work too heavy, and therefore he was unable to carry on the work the position of vice-president demands.

Petitions can be taken out for a new vice-president. Blanks can be secured from George Tobias.

Local Junior Lions Given Club Charter

Presentation of the charter to the Santa Ana Junior Lions by Wesley Jones, Lions district governor, was the most important feature of the Lions club banquet at Ketner's gold room last Friday night. Willard White, Junior Lions president, accepted the charter in behalf of this newly formed organization.

The Junior Lions have grown from a small group, first organized in Pasadena, three years ago, to a national organization. In presenting the charter to the group, Jones brought greetings from the National Federation of Lions and best wishes for the success and growth of the Santa Ana organization.

Walter Spicer, Santa Ana Lions president, introduced Johnny Clark, of Riverside, federation secretary. Bert Howard, Hollywood Optometrist club member, entertained with impersonations and musical numbers.

Coach Oliver of Santa Ana high school presented the gavel to Willard White on behalf of the Senior Lions.

Dean Fisk, and A. J. Cook spoke briefly on Junior Lions work.

Thirty were present, including the fifteen charter members of the Junior Lions. Pins were also presented to the members by the Senior Lions.

The meeting adjourned with the singing of "America".

Movements Of Planets To Be Shown In College Hall

Mr. Edmonds will demonstrate the Tellerium which illustrates the movements of the sun, moon, and stars. He will also show an instrument which illustrates tidal actions. The demonstration will be in room 11, November 20, from nine to ten.

THREE WILL ATTEND COAST CONFERENCE

"Junior College" will be the subject discussed this year at the Pacific Coast College Registrar Association which meets at Riverside, November 19 and 20. Representatives from Santa Ana junior college will be Mr. Hammond, Mr. Fisk, and Miss Whiting.

The association tries to standardize the methods of procedure of entering a college and the transferring from one college to another. It also takes up the eligibility and personnel of the student body.

Violin Solo, Play In Assembly Today

"Daron", a play by Percival Wilde, will be the main feature of the assembly today in the high school auditorium.

The leads are taken by Keith Trickey, Julie Bingham, and Ray Lindman.

Jane Stewart will give violin selections. Her selections will be "Romance" by Vieuxtemps. She will be accompanied by Lois Allen.

Charlotte Browne will sing. She will be accompanied by Lois Allen. She will sing "Until" by Wilfred Sanderson. She will also give some popular numbers.

Regulations Made For Examinations

Regulation blue books furnished by the instructors at the beginning of the examination will be used for all mid-semester final exams.

A deposit of twenty-five cents to pay for the said book will be accepted in the office. A second new regulation that dark ink will be used.

No student shall be admitted to class for more than fifteen minutes tardiness, unless a permit from the Dean is presented. All students are required to remain in class for at least half an hour after the examination has begun.

Unless exams are taken at the appointed time and place a grade of E or F will be given, depending upon the other work.

Students are asked to observe these regulations.

Drama Students Plan Advertising Program

Students of the advanced dramatics class are planning a play at each school to advertise Santa Ana junior college.

Programs will probably be put on in several high schools outside of Orange county, declare students in charge of the plan. The class is practicing on four plays at the present time. They are "The Same Old Thing", "Dawn", "The Trysting Place", "Dregs".

"Dawn" is to be given in assembly today.

"The Same Old Thing" will be presented at Anaheim high school tomorrow and at Riverside on November 28.

JOHN SOUSA ELUDES BAND OF REPORTERS

John Phillip Sousa apparently has an extreme dislike for interviews and has a decided bent for eluding reporters.

He slipped away from two Don reporters, two Generator reporters, and representatives of the city papers, Thursday afternoon.

Two Don reporters urged an unwilling Ford to its greatest efforts pursuing the famous band leader about the city. A Don reporter, two Generator reporters expected to interview Sousa as he came out of the high school auditorium. The three

Co-operative Club Host To Employers

All retail management students, composing the membership of the Co-operative club, will be hosts at a banquet given in honor of the employers of students, on Wednesday, November 21, at 6:30 p. m. in the junior college cafeteria.

The purpose of the banquet is to promote a better understanding of student needs among the employers of the community.

The committee on entertainment is to take charge of the affair, and is composed of Ted Cook, president, Omar Williams, Margaret Brandenburg, and Frederick Schrock.

Tryouts For Debate Set For Next Mon.

Tryouts for the college debate team will be held November 19, it is announced.

All students interested in making the team are required to prepare a speech, maximum length of delivery ten minutes, on one or both sides of the question: Resolved: Trial by jury be abolished except in capital cases.

After the speech is delivered, each participant will be tested on their rebuttal ability by the judges.

The students are judged 50 per cent on type of subject matter and logical organization and 50 per cent on forceful and effective delivery.

Women Students Add New Cabinet Members

In order that the work of the A. W. S. may be carried on more efficiently the cabinet has been enlarged so as to include girls representing all the different parts of the county. The duties of these girls will be to look after the interests of the students who reside in their particular territory.

The following were chosen for the cabinet: Roberta Eley, Anaheim; Susannah Erbe, Costa Mesa and Balboa; Margaret Day, Garden Grove; Pauline Prescott, Huntington Beach; Frances Harper, Orange; Lu Pomeroy, Rose Marie Smith, and Eleanor Metzgar' and Marcia Huber, Santa Ana; and Catherine Jessup, Tustin.

The Dance At Orange Sat.
Nite?

Santa Ana Dance Held In American Legion Hall Sat.

Ball Honors Football Heroes; Decorations Represent Football Motif

As a fitting climax to the Fullerton-Santa Ana game, Santa Ana junior college will hold the first dance sponsored by the associated student body with Fullerton students as guests. The date of the dance is Saturday night, November 17, 9 p. m., at the American Legion Hall in Orange.

This dance will honor football and its heroes, as refreshments favors, and decorations will be carried out in the football motif.

Student body tickets will be honored at this affair, but those not having them can get tickets for fifty cents. Guest tickets will be given to students who desire to bring outsiders. Guest tickets can be secured from Adelaide Mueller or Eddie Gerhardt.

Sterling Barnett and Willard White will decorate for the dance. Madelyn Morelock, Hazel Gilbert, Felix Garnsey, and Rex Brown are arranging refreshments. Favors will be supplied by Ray Lindman, Delmar Brown, Clara Kate Owens and Ruth Ann Walker.

Eddie Gerhardt is going to Fullerton this afternoon to formally invite the Fullerton student body to attend the dance as guests of Santa Ana junior college.

Committee Of Social Affairs Makes Rules

The social affairs committee, composed of Agnes Todd Miller, F. H. Glenn, L. L. Beaman and Mabel Whiting have submitted a list of regulations which all junior college

1. All students must present for admission either student body tickets or special ticket purchased for the occasion.

2. Santa Ana high school students, excepting those who are enrolled in any junior college course at any time during the current year, are excluded from all affairs.

3. Each student is allowed to bring a guest ticket must be secured by 4 o'clock the day of the affair.

4. Parents, alumni, and former non-graduates, with not more than one guest each, may be admitted without ticket to all affairs.

These regulations apply to all affairs of the college, whether under the control of the associated students social committee or under any organization using the name of the junior college.

Personal Photographs Are Required Of All Students

There is a college regulation that all students must file a small photograph are retained as a part of the student's permanent record of identification. Students may not register for the second semester or transfer credits until these pictures are filed.

Over the Editor's Desk

ROUND TABLE

In the minds of those who were present at the Round Table conference held at Santa Ana last Wednesday it was highly successful.

This conference, without any formal organization, has for its purpose one aim only—to openly and fairly discuss junior college problems from a student point of view. It is very evident that the discussion at which Santa Ana was host was quite helpful from this standpoint.

THE Y. W. TYPE

Here, for instance, is an interesting question brought up during the discussion of the Y. W.: Is there a Y. W. type? In other words can you, as a college student, pick the girls who are members of this organization from observing the actions and manners of a campus full of students.

It was the general opinion of the delegates that it was possible and that there was a Y. W. type. However, we have a suspicion that this opinion would not be in the majority if a census was taken in this institution.

But such as it is—what is your thoughts on the matter—if any.

6—4—4

Another interesting point brought up for discussion was the 6-4-4 plan involving junior colleges. Since Pasadena is now operating under this system they introduced this topic, and a hot argument followed.

Most of the colleges were against this plan, which joins the high school and junior college into one institution.

We often wonder how many students have ever stopped to consider the future of the type of school which they are now attending. In the near future the Dons plans to run some explanatory and opinionative material on this subject in the hope that more interest will be shown along this line.

"MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE"

After attending assembly last week, maybe out of a sense of duty, one student was heard to say: "Speeches are not so dry after all, especially if you get a real, live speaker to talk on marriage."

And that, in a way, seemed to be the opinion of a great many students who were present.

GONE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN

Santa Ana's hopes for the championship took a decided fall last Monday and no one realizes it more than the team that fought so hard for it.

It was a real inspiration to see those ever-loyal Dons make that desperate attempt in the second half to "come back", and their disappointment must have been great—greater than those who sat in the stands can ever know.

The editors of the Don have found that there is much interest and no little talent in the art of writing poetry to be found in the ranks of our student body.

Every year there is published by Fullerton junior college a book of poetry to which all the colleges contribute. In reference to this we want to make the students of Santa Ana a proposition. If they will write poetry and hand it to any member of the Don staff, we will take the lead in selecting the best and submitting it to the editor of this booklet.

And who knows but that Santa Ana might even have a poetry publication itself if the students show enough interest in the matter.

POETRY

Speaking of football, here is a little poem that reached us in a roundabout way just before the Compton game.

There's only a game or two that's left

Before the season's end,
Football then will pass away
To follow the sport's slow trend.

For full five game I've adorned the bench,

With ever an expectant heart,
Waiting for the coach's call
Telling me to start;

But these long weeks have passed away

With never a moment's play
I'm getting sort of discouraged now,
No matter what you say.

I often tho't I'd quite the team,
And watch it from the stand.
But every time I tho't of that,
I felt the staying hand;
For the tang of living would then be gone

And life wouldn't be the same
However drear the bench may be

I love the gridiron game.
So now that the season's end is nigh,

I have little hope within,
But you never can tell, in the game to come.

The coach may put me in.
And the best thing about this poem is the fact that he really did get in.

Madelyn Morelock: "I wonder why that man carries a cane?"

Wylie Carlyle: "I wonder why?" Madelyn: "Because it can't walk."

It's just about time Leonard Morris should learn where to keep his feet. It would be better still, if he'd put them in his pocket.

And then there was the absent-minded professor who gave his fingernails an examination and cut his class.

Mr. Glenn: "Go your fastest, my man, I am in a desperate hurry."

Taxi Driver (after speeding along for thirty minutes): "Say, you forgot to tell me where to go."

Mr. Fisk: "Can you give me an example of a paradox?"

George Tobias: "Sure, a man walking a mile but only moving two feet."

Instructor Attends Conference Sponsored By Peace Committee

Nealley Staunch In Support Of Charts

Mr. Nealley's hobby is making charts. He receives much enjoyment from spending an entire evening explaining some student puzzling problems by means of a chart.

If Mr. Nealley's charts were placed end to end they would reach for two miles. He has 884 charts, all made by his own hands. Such an expert is he in this line that he is able to make one ten feet long in two hours.

One room in his home is reserved for such material. The charts are grouped in tens. A complete index is kept of each group, so that within a very few minutes information on a topic in psychology, philosophy, or ethics may be obtained.

Mr. Nealley thinks that charts are valuable to the student since the senses of the eye and ear are both affected in the presenting of the information. Those of us who have been in his classes cannot help but realize their great value.

Armstrong Of Lancashire Press Delivers Main Address At Meeting

Sir George Armstrong of the Lancashire press, who delivered an address on Friday, November 2, before the Southern California committee on the cause and cure of war, is one of the fourteen British journalists visiting America under the auspices of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace.

Mrs. Tessmann, who attended this conference in Los Angeles, states that it was the opportunity of those present to meet these Englishmen.

The committee on the Cause and Cure of War, which is composed of representatives of nine national women's organizations, held the conference for the discussion of the Multilateral treaty and education in the next step to make the Paris Pact for renunciation of war a reality. The presidents of six of the colleges in Southern California spoke on the Paris Pact.

Other guests at the meeting included official representatives of the eight nations which signed the Paris Pact, August 26, 1928.

Musician's Corner

Fritz Kreisler's talent is by no means confined to the violin. He could be, if he chose a brilliant concert pianist, and he plays a variety of instruments, including even the ukulele and the saxophone. He is a voracious reader in many languages and takes an alert interest in affairs of the day.

The Martha Oatman players recently presented "Captain Applejack" for the Covina Women's club. Students in the children's department of the Martha Oatman school are busy preparing a series of productions for Christmas week.

Ali Gaillard, pianist, will appear in recital with her father, Fritz Gaillard, cellist, at the Beaux Arts auditorium, November 16.

Edward H. Batner, negro baritone and composer of a number of spirituals is very much against the popularization of these religious songs.

The most prominent trait in the negro is religion, and those who look upon spirituals as a source of amusement are wrong. A crusade is being carried on now to confine the spirituals to the school, the church, and concert programs. It is hoped that by doing this the spirituals will be eliminated from the vaudeville and other jazz programs. The negro race is slowly coming into its own as evidenced by the recognition accorded Roland Hayes and other colored artists.

The strike of union musicians in the Netco chain of moving picture houses in Greater Boston has been settled and the employees have returned to their stands.

The John Smallman A Cappella Choir is planning an unusual programme for their Sunday matinee on November 25, at the Philharmonic Auditorium in Los Angeles. Of particular interest is the opening number, the Gloria and Sanctus from the "Missa Papae Marcelli."

John Philip Sousa Hard To Interview

student reporters waited indefinitely at the stage door, intending to pounce upon the famed personage. The gentleman failed to make his appearance, however.

Discovering their mistake, the scribes dashed to the front of the building where the players were disbanding and made the discovery that their victim had already left the campus.

The Don reporter doubled his crew, jumped into his Ford, and went in chase of Sousa. Having had erroneous information that he was to leave by train, the two vibrated to the station where they found nothing more than an engine and a couple of lonesome freight cars.

At the Pacific Electric station they pantingly inquired for Sousa and were told that he and his band had just left.

Parisian Patty

Dearest Mums:

I'm writing to ask your advice on something very important. I've been invited to a Christmas ball and as it is rather an elite affair, don't you think I should have a new gown? Some of the other girls are invited too, and I know you'd want me to be as well dressed as they.

The gown will be quite formal, of course. But mother, I wanted to ask you what color and material you think I'd look best in. Velvet, taffeta, and taffeta moire seem to be the most popular materials just now. I rather favor the moire but I don't know just what color to use. You see, there are really two modes just now—one for very pale shades and one for very dark shades. Don't you think one of the dark shades would look best on me? I could use black, blue, wine red or brown. I'd like to have this dress made at one of the best houses if you don't think it would be too expensive. I've been thinking of having it made on princess lines with a low decolletage and a big bow across the back. I might have some of the beautiful flowers they are using for trimming instead of the bow. Oh! I'm so thrilled over this opportunity that I'm afraid to choose what to wear. Please write just as soon as you possibly can and tell me what I would look my best in.

Patty

Waiting impatiently.

Alumni Notes

Frances Reid is attending Oregon State (Alpha Gamma Delta).

Newton Pierce is now professor of mathematics and physics at Doane college, Crete, Nebraska.

Norton Stephenson is taking a P.G. course in science at the University of Michigan.

Mary Sheffer is now bacteriologist at the Orange County Hospital.

Madame Ridon, Popular Southland Soloist Pleases Musical Clubs

Local Pedagogue Usually Sings Songs In Original Language

Madame Ridon, the talented vocalist who sang in assembly last week, has sung in most of the large clubs in Southern California.

"I always sing French, German, and Italian songs in their native language," remarked Madame Ridon. She thinks that translated words to a song characteristic if a certain country simply do not blend.

Madame Ridon has always been deeply interested in music. Even when a small child she sang much before large audiences. Her one great aim in life was to be a music teacher.

She has studied under three noted vocal instructors: Graveure, Bruiger, and Alexander. She is mainly interested in voice, her second interest is in the piano. In a very enthusiastic manner, probably due to the recalling of fond memories, Madame Ridon stated that she had often in past years sung in comic operas.

In her teaching experience, she has found that foreigners make quicker progress than do Americans. The reason seems to be that people in other countries receive more mu-

Teachers Of Modern Language Meet Here

The modern language teachers will hold a meeting Thursday at 4:15 in the library of the junior college.

Following the meeting a German dinner will be given at 6 o'clock. Conversation will be carried on in German during the dinner. Miss Thelma Stovall will sing two of Shubert's numbers in German, as this is Shubert's week.

Martha Eland, of Fullerton will speak on her year in Germany. Miss Johnson, also of Fullerton, will speak in Spanish of her trip to Spain.

Miss Martha Swingle, Huntington Beach Spanish teacher, will tell of her trip to Spain last summer. Miss Trythall, who spent the summer in Europe, will tell of her experiences.

sic training than we do. Opera music to them is just as popular as jazz is to us.

Madame Ridon has been in Santa Ana for two years, and she is very favorably impressed with this city as a music center. Now she is teaching vocal every Monday and Thursday in the Greenleaf building.

In this age of simplified underdress the modern miss desires a one-piece garment combining braisiere, vest, and bloomers. This explains in a large measure her interests in the Knickerbocker Misses Combrasure.

"Staples" Again Bow To "Harmons"

Fighting the closest game of the season thus far, "Toots" team last Monday made an unsuccessful attempt to repay "Dodo's" team the defeat given them in a former game. final score was Harman 17, Staples, 14.

Here they are:

Walbridge (6)	F	(15) Prather
Harman (18)	F	(5) Tantlinger
Thomas	C	Richards
Hakel	SC	Goodrich
Westover	G	Willsey
Markel	G	Reynolds

"Pollywogs" Beat Harmon Six 26-21

Starting out with a walk away, the Pollywogs succeeded in defeating the Harman sextet by the narrow margin of 26 to 21.

This game, played last Friday, was the first one in which the Pollywogs and Dodo's team have met. Both teams had been undefeated till then.

The game started with the Pollywogs taking a decided lead, which they maintained throughout the first half. During the third quarter Dodo's team rallied to the extent of holding their opponents scoreless while they doubled their own score. The score then was 24 to 18.

The last quarter the Pollywogs were held to two points, on free throws; but Harman's team didn't succeed in adding to their score sufficiently to win.

"Tantalizers" Hold "Staples" To Tie

Coming nearer to winning than in any game so far, the Tantalizers held Staple's team to a tie score of 25 to 25, last Friday.

The first quarter ended one point in the freshie's favor, but the Tantalizer's came forward with a two point lead at the end of the half.

In the third quarter the sophomores walked over their opponents to the tune of 24 to 15, but the fourth quarter allowed them only one point, while they added enough points to tie the score, 25 to 25.

Harold Hylton is becoming to be known as "Jesse Hibbs", among his fellow players, probably as a result of the splendid performance that Harold has shown thus far this season.

Outplaying a team in the matter of first downs and yards from scrimmage, but out-foxed in the matter of passes, the Dons were defeated by the Compton Tartars by a count of 13-6. The game was hard fought throughout and with the exception of the first few minutes of the game the Dons played a mighty fine brand of football. The Tartars proved to be a fine grid machine and both Scott and Williams, Compton half backs, scintillated throughout the tilt and Scott was the lad who was responsible for both of the Compton tallies.

The game was played before the largest crowd that has ever packed the stands, the total cash receipts being in excess of nine hundred dollars. Time after time, the crowd was brought to its feet by the thrilling plays executed by both teams.

The Tartars scored early in the first quarter and again in the last spasm converting the first goal. The Dons lone counter came in the third quarter and was the result of the powerful drive unleashed by the Dons.

Bill Dugger did most of the ball packing in the game and it was his driving ability that finally put the ball over the Dons goal. On nine straight plays Bill took the ball 34 yards for the Dons tally and this was against a determined Compton team, too. Bill was easily the outstanding star in the backfield, while Hylton played his usual famous game on the line. All the boys played excellent football and all worked hard but these two out shone the rest.

Rust and Norton played their usual fine game but neither did much of the ball packing. Not nearly as much as heretofore. Defensively the team was really better than on the offense and with three or four exceptions the Dons were successful in keeping the Tartars pretty well subdued. It was these exceptions that proved so costly to the Dons hopes for victory.

This defeat coupled with the win turned in by Pasadena over Glendale practically eliminates the Dons from any consideration for the crown. Unless Pasadena is defeated in their final game and the Dons can win from Fullerton, whatever hopes the boys may have had for a trip to Hawaii will have to be interred in the private cemetery along with other Don aspirations. Even if such a thing should come to pass, the leadership will still depend upon the outcome of the Compton and Long Beach games the former of which is now a strong contender for the coveted crown.

Following are the lineups of the two teams.

FEAT OF BROTHER RETOLD

A Don reporter heard by a round about method that Leland Ostrander was a brother of a famous runner attending an eastern college. Leland was too modest to tell of his brother's rise to fame so the Don had to get the facts without his aid. Leland's famous brother is not slim as all runners are, but he cracks the haysicles at 250 which only adds weight to this story. The record for the 220 dash is 19 seconds flat, according to young Ostrander.

Here are the alleged details of the famous run. Leland's brother at the time of the race was running up hill thru a cornfield with snowshoes on and carrying a 200 pound pack and stopped on the way for a drink. Now that is a record, it broke the previous record by about three or four seconds set by a fat man fully equipped for running on a cinder path.

Leland also holds a few records and is a member of the S. A. J. C. for Hawaii club.

Chaffey Defeats Riverside 28-7

Chaffey junior college eleven defeated the strong Riverside Jaysee aggregation by a score of 28-7 at the Ontario field last Saturday. After being held scoreless in the first quarter while the Riverside bunch pushed over a goal, the Chaffey grididers came back in the second quarter to annex two tallies and repeated in the fourth spasm while holding the Indians to the one touchdown.

This win gives Chaffey another

Buccaneers In Spectacular Game:
L. B. Vikings Lose To Fullerton

Dons-Fullerton To Mix Saturday

Adding another notch to the old shooting iron, the Pasadena Bulldogs defeated the strong Glendale eleven on the latter's home field last Saturday. The final count was 13 to 6 in favor of the Bulldogs although the Buccaneers were robbed of another touchdown by the final gun.

The Bulldogs scored in the first and third quarters and the Glendale gridders annexed their tally in the first few minutes of the second quarter.

The Glendale tally came after Covington, star half-back caught a Pasadena punt on his own 20 yard line and galloped through a broken field for the touchdown. Klink of Glendale scooped up a fumble by Pasadena in the last spasm and rattled off 65 yards before being tackled. The game ended before Glendale was able to push over the goal line.

This victory for Pasadena was more or less a surprise for the bucking Buccaneers were given the edge in the tilt.

Fullerton Jaysee also came up in the conference standing last Saturday when the Yellowjackets stung the Long Beach Vikings for a two tally victory. Fullerton scored in the first two quarters and were unable to do more in the second half. The Norsemen were unable to get started and failed to score. This 14-0 victory for Fullerton eliminates the Vikings from any championship playoffs and at the same time sends the Yellow jackets up the line in conference standing.

step up in the Eastern conference and practically assures her of the Championship of that division. Whatever hopes Riverside had of winning are considerably weakened by this defeat.
